Openings Remain for Oberlin Heritage Center's Summer Camps for Kids and Teens

There are still openings available for those who wish to register for any of the week-long day camps offered by the Oberlin Heritage Center this summer. Topics include: Junior Docents (for ages 13-17, June 21-25), Local Inventors and Innovators (for ages 8-13, August 2-6), Green Camp (for ages 8-13, August 9-13) and Architecture Camp (for kids 8-13, August 16-20).

Reservations also are being taken for several single-day camps being offered July 27-30, which are designed to help meet badge requirements for Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, while also appealing to children who are not in a scouting program. These include: What Makes America Special? (July 27) and The Past is Exciting and Important (July 28) both of which are for boys ages 8-10 and meet Bear level Cub Scout badge requirements; Local Lore (July 29) for girls ages 8-11, designed in accordance with Junior Girl Scout badge requirements; and Junior & Cadette Camp (July 30) for girls in grades 4-8 which focuses on women from Oberlin's past and ties together themes from the "It's Your World—Change it" Journey and the "Women Through Time" Interest Project.

Children and grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members receive a discount on camp registration fees, and partial scholarships are available for those who qualify. An "early bird" reduction of $5.00 per child per week-long camp, and $2.00 per child per single-day camp, is available to anyone who registers by June 11. For more information about times, fees and locations for each camp, or to register for one of the programs, please visit www.oberlinheritage.org or call the Oberlin Heritage Center at (440) 774-1700.
