Oberlin Heritage Center Presents Hands-On History Series for Home Schoolers

Boys and girls ages 8-13 will enjoy the Oberlin Heritage Center's "Cultures of the World" series designed for home schooled students. The Wednesday afternoon sessions explore ancient cultures through hands-on activities and discussions of language, art, food, religion and more. The program will be offered at the Oberlin Depot (240 South Main Street) from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. beginning February 26 and continuing through March 19, 2014. The lineup includes themes from four different periods of world history: Stone Age Britain, Ancient Indonesia, The Age of Exploration: Voyages at Sea, and The Five Iroquois Nations. Participants register for the entire four-class series.

Registration is underway and reservations may be made at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org or call (440) 774-1700 and request a registration form. Fee is $40 for children or grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members, and $45 for non-members. All who register prior to January 18 will receive an Early Bird discount of $5 per student. A maximum of 17 participants will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

The home school series will be led by Elizabeth Schultz, the Oberlin Heritage Center's Museum Education and Tour Coordinator. Liz holds undergraduate degrees in archaeology and anthropology and a master's degree in museum studies, with a focus in museum education, from the Cooperstown Graduate Program (New York). She enjoys inspiring curiosity, creativity, and an appreciation for diverse cultures, past and present. This is her seventh year developing and leading children's programming for the Oberlin Heritage Center. The Heritage Center's kids' programming is a past recipient of a History Outreach Excellence Award from the Ohio Local History Alliance (OLHA).
