Openings Remain for Oberlin Heritage Center's Summer Camps for Kids and Teens

There are still openings available for those who wish to register for any of the week-long day camps offered by the Oberlin Heritage Center this summer. Topics include: Junior Docents (for ages 13-17, held the week of June 15-19), Hungry for History (for ages 8-13, held the week of July 20-24), Kids & World Cultures (for ages 8-13, focusing on "Cultures of the Ancient World," and held the week of July 27 – 31) and Friends of Freedom (for kids 8-13, held the week of August 3-7).

Reservations also are being taken for the single-day camps being offered the week of August 10-14, which are designed to help meet badge requirements for Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. The camps also will appeal to children who are not in a scouting program. These include: Listening to the Past (August 10) for girls ages 6-8, designed in accordance with Brownie badge requirements; Local Lore (August 11) for girls 8-11, designed to meet Junior Girl Scout badge requirements; What Makes America Special (August 12) for boys 8-10, which meets Bear level Cub Scout badge requirements; American Heritage (August 13) for boys 10-14, designed to meet Boy Scout badge requirements; and Architecture (August 14) for boys and girls 8-13, which relates to both Junior Girl Scout and Boy Scout badge projects.

Children and grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members receive a discount on camp registration fees, and partial scholarships are available for those who qualify. For more information about times, fees and locations for each camp, or to register for one of the programs, please visit www.oberlinheritage.org or call the Oberlin Heritage Center at (440) 774-1700.
