

Oberlin Heritage Center presents:

Hands-On History and Cultures of the World

Home School Series
Three Tuesdays, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
March 1-15, 2015

Children ages eight to thirteen are sure to enjoy this engaging and educational series about people around the world!

Each week we will explore a different culture and time period through hands-on activities and discussions of art, architecture, food, geography, religion and more:

Arctic Native Nations

Japan

Ireland

Classes are led by an experienced instructor and assisted by an adult volunteer. Classes will be held at the Oberlin Depot at 240 South Main Street. See the back for more details and registration information.

The series will be led by Amanda Manahan, the Museum Education and Tour Coordinator of the Oberlin Heritage Center. She has degrees in anthropology and museum studies with a focus in museum education and interpretation. Amanda enjoys inspiring curiosity and creativity through hands-on, interdisciplinary activities.

A maximum of 17 participants will be accepted. Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Participants must register for the entire three-class series. Classes may be cancelled if a minimum enrollment of eight is not met by one week prior to the start date. No refunds will be made within one week prior to the start of the series.

Cost and Registration for the Three-Class Series
