Historic Windows Repair Workshop

Friday-Sunday, June 3-5, 2016

Window painted shut? Sashes falling apart? Putty getting loose? Lorri Sipes, a member of the National Association of Window Restoration Specialists, is hosting a three-day workshop in Oberlin!

Carpenters, contractors, students, and homeowners are invited to attend and learn the basics for repairing wood double-hung windows. The workshop combines written hand-outs, skill demonstration, and hands-on repair. Each participant will be assigned to a two-person team to work on repairing one or two windows over the course of the workshop. The program begins Friday evening (6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.) and continues during the day both Saturday and Sunday (9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.). All skill levels welcome, although participants should be comfortable with hand tools and small power tools and be prepared to work outside.

Participants will learn the following skills:

- Unsticking windows that are painted shut
- Removing window sashes
- Removing old glazing putty
- Re-glazing and refinishing sashes
- Stripping paint from sash frames
- Weatherstripping jambs and sashes
- Replacing sash cords and restoring operation
- Re-installing restored sashes

“Lorri has a talent for leading you through the process with guidance in hands-on learning. She’s patient and attentive and willing to answer any question knowledgeably. She also has a large list of excellent, up-to-date, resources of high quality materials and tools. These are essential to do the job well.”

$225/person for the entire workshop. Lunch is on your own in historic downtown Oberlin.

Registration Form: Please complete and return by May 20

Workshop is limited to 10 participants for maximum teaching and hands-on experience. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. More information, including an agenda, instruction manual, and list of tools to bring, will follow.
