

73 ½ South Professor Street
Oberlin, OH 44074
(440) 774-1700
www.oberlinheritagecenter.org

Free training workshop
Register by April 18

“One Step More”

Oberlin Women’s History Walk

Docent Training

Learn how to present stories (in the format of a 75-minute walking tour) about powerful 19th and early 20th century Oberlin women who helped shape what it meant to be a woman in a small town and across America.

Images: Smithsonian Institution, Oberlin College Archives, “The Congress of Women” 1893

April 23 (Saturday, 1:00–4:00 p.m.)

Meet at Monroe House (73½ South Professor Street) and training will move on from there

Pre-register by contacting Amanda Manahan at (440) 774-1700 or tourinfo@oberlinheritage.org