

A Robust Pairing of Wine and History

Monday, June 27, 2016
7:00-8:30pm

Join us at Vermilion Valley Vineyards for an evening pleasing to the palate, ear, and mind!

$13/member, $15/non-member

With the help of Vermilion Valley Vineyards, an OHC business member, we will present an evening of Ohio wines and related history that spans both near and far.

Schedule:

- Doors open at 6:30, and arrival time will be accompanied by solo finger style & jazz guitar music provided by Rich Holsworth.
- Guests will then sample a "flight" of six wines as Joe Juniper, co-owner of Vermilion Valley Vineyards, shares details about the wine and winery.
- Wine will be accompanied by light hors d'oeuvres and sweets.
- Following the tasting, OHC's AmeriCorps Member Mary Manning will share a short presentation about the Great French Wine Blight of the mid-1800s, which altered the course of the entire wine industry and has a surprising Ohio connection.

Reservations are required for this special evening. Adults only.

Location: 11005 Gore Orphanage Road, Wakeman, OH 44889

Registration Form: Please complete and return by June 15

Registration for this event is limited, and reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.
