Oberlin Heritage Center Offers Music-Themed Tour

The Oberlin Heritage Center will offer a wonderfully melodious tour of the Heritage Center's historic properties on the first Saturday of February (Feb. 4), March (March 4), and April (April 1) at 1:00 p.m. Inspired by neighboring Oberlin Conservatory's recent 150th anniversary, this one-hour guided tour features musical artifacts and sounds of the time. Participants will learn how music was used for entertainment, fellowship and teaching in 19th and 20th century homes. Advance registration is recommended; reserve a tour online at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org or call (440) 774-1700 or stop by the Monroe House in person at 73½ South Professor Street in Oberlin. The tour fee is $6 per adult and is free for OHC members, children and college students.

The Oberlin Heritage Center, located 35 miles west of Cleveland, is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums and is widely recognized as a model small museum, historical society and historic preservation organization. Free parking is accessible off of 20 West Vine Street. For more information, visit www.oberlinheritagecenter.org or contact Museum Education & Tour Coordinator Amanda Manahan at (440) 774-1700 or tourinfo@oberlinheritage.org.
