

OHC MEMBERS FIELD TRIP
LEEK PIPE ORGAN COMPANY
 FRIDAY, JULY 20, 2018

Join us for a mechanical, musical, magnificent visit to Leek Pipe Organ Company in Berea, Ohio! Conversations will include pipe families and materials, "voicing" a pipe, and how organ technology has changed over time. There also will be a few mini hands-on activities. This family-owned company was founded in 1976 by John G. P. Leek, former Curator of Pipe Organs at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

When: 10:00 a.m. - Noon (car pooling leaves at 9:15 a.m.)

Where: Leek Pipe Organ Company, 288 Karl Street, Berea, OH 44017.
Specific parking instructions will be provided upon registration.

Cost: $20 / OHC member (Not a member? Join at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org or call (440) 774-1700.)

Field trip guests may drive on their own and join the group in Berea, or car pooling is available from Oberlin. This field trip is recommended for adults and youth ages 12 and up.

Registration Form: Please complete and return by July 14

Space is limited to 25 and reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration is also available online at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org. Additional information will be sent following registration.
