Spring Break Camps

For Boys & Girls Ages 8-13

March 25-29 or April 22-26, 2019

9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

This year’s camp looks at people and events in history that made us shudder, yet also influenced society to improve and change in response. Did you know that in colonial America, a woman could be accused of witchcraft for having an argument with a neighbor? Or that more soldiers died from disease than from fighting during the Civil War? Sometimes the past is truly terrible. The camp covers some of the foul facts of world history but will also guide youth in discovering how progress can be made and issues can be resolved. Camps are held at the Oberlin Depot (240 South Main St.)
