Heritage Center Annual Meeting Features Anthropologist Amy Margaris 19th Annual Community Award Recipients Honored

The public is invited to the annual dinner meeting of the Oberlin Heritage Center on Wednesday, April 1 at The Hotel at Oberlin (10 East College Street). This year's gathering of Heritage Center members and friends features a presentation by Oberlin College Associate Professor of Anthropology Amy Margaris delving into the story of an Oberlin museum that ceased to exist. Margaris will discuss the history of the old "Oberlin College Museum" and current efforts to revitalize its remaining contents. The Heritage Center appreciates the support of Northwest Bank for sponsoring this evening's events.

The evening's Social Hour (with cash bar and a basket raffle) begins at 5:00 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:00 p.m., with the business meeting and program immediately following. The Heritage Center's 19th Annual Community Awards presentations round out the evening, with recognition given to several local leaders in history education, historic preservation, and community service. This year's award recipients are David Ashenurst, Community Historian Award; Stephen Johnson III, OHC Volunteer of the Year Award; Green Circle Growers, Keep Oberlin Beautiful Award; Ja'Niece Whitehead, History Teacher of the Year Award; and Emily Winnicki, Youth Community Service Award.

Reservations for the Oberlin Heritage Center's annual meeting are $40 per person for Heritage Center members and $45 per person for the general public and may be purchased online at www.oberlinheritagecenter.org, or by contacting the Heritage Center at (440) 774-1700.
