

Oberlin Heritage Center New Honorary Trustees

Judy Cook

Judy Cook joined the board in 2014 and has brought many OHC programs to life with her costumed musical performances. For the past several years she has also portrayed historical figures in OHC's "Every Good Story Has a Plot" special series in Westwood Cemetery, as well as dedicated countless hours toward the ongoing cemetery inventory project.

Marlene D. Merrill

Marlene D. Merrill has been a board member since 2017 but her contributions to the organization and the field extend far further back. Among many projects, Marly wrote scholarly works on the history of early African American and female students at Oberlin College, authored the OHC publication "Sarah Margru Kinson: The Two Worlds of an Amistad Captive", and was instrumental in founding the Oberlin Oral History Project.
