Descriptions for the June and July themed tours can be found below:

June — *Freedom's Friends: Abolition and the Underground Railroad (in honor of Juneteenth)

Hear stories about Oberlin's most famous freedom seekers and people known to have helped them make their way to freedom.

“Oberlin is perhaps the most important station along the whole line of the Underground Railway. It has rendered the most important services to Freedom. It is second only to Canada as an asylum for the hunted fugitive.” Hear stories about Oberlin's most famous freedom seekers and people known to have helped them make their way to freedom. This guided history walk is approximately 90 minutes and begins near the front steps of First Church, U.C.C. at the northwest corner of Main Street (Route 58) and Lorain Street (Route 511).

Special addition to the calendar: OHC is happy to add the Scholars and Settlers History Walk to our tour calendar on June 5, 12, and 19 at 2:00 p.m. On this tour, you will learn about the earliest residents of Oberlin and hear fascinating stories of the triumphs, debates, and scandals linked to the landmarks around Tappan Square. Compare the buildings of today to the buildings of yesteryear using historic photographs and walk away with a lively appreciation of Oberlin's unique heritage. Whether you've lived in Oberlin forever or are new to the area, you'll find much to enjoy during this guided tour!

July — *Civil War to Civil Rights

This tour highlights historic events that reveal both Oberlin's progress and setbacks in race relations dating from early Oberlin all the way up to the 21st Century. Learn how Oberlin was a leader in abolition, participating heavily in events such as the Oberlin-Wellington Rescue, the Raid on Harpers Ferry, and the American Civil War, but also struggled with its own issues of equality and racism during these early years and later through Reconstruction, Jim Crow, Civil Rights, and today. This tour begins near the front steps of First Church, U.C.C. at the northwest corner of Main Street (Route 58) and Lorain Street (Route 511).

Oberlin Outdoors Camp; August 9-13, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Let's get outdoors and explore Oberlin's landscape! Campers will tour around famous man-made landmarks, gardens, and natural spaces. Children will learn about pollinators, plants, and how we affect our local environment, and try their hand at gardening and designing landscapes of their own.

Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations must be accompanied by payment. Children and grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members may receive the member discount. No refunds will be made for cancellations within one week prior to the session the registrant is scheduled to attend. His talent was undeniable. But his life became wrapped in scandal, on and off the baseball field. Watch the video of Kathryn and Bette Lou's conversation and hear the story of Shoeless Joe: <https://aginggracefully.tv/shoeless-joe-jackson/>
