2014 Youth Summer Camps

Recommended for ages 8-13

Oberlin Expedition

July 28 – August 1 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Staff Only! Keep Out! Do these signs bother you? In this camp, we'll explore behind-the-scenes of museums, businesses, and landmarks in Oberlin to learn more about what makes the town run. See what sets the pins in a bowling alley and what makes a fire department move fast. Nose around in the attics of the Heritage Center and other vaults of art and history. This expedition will explore the realms of education, art, history, entertainment, and city services.

World Cultures Camp

August 4-8 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Join us for an exciting adventure into various cultures around the world. During this camp, students will gain a greater knowledge about people around the world and their ways of life, exploring international music, dance, food, and history. Camp will include drumming, Ukrainian egg painting, cooking, folktales, and more. By learning about other countries and their practices, students will broaden their horizons, understanding not only cultural differences, but also what makes us all similar.

Architecture Camp

August 11-15 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Children will love learning the basics of architecture in this hands-on camp. Together we will tour Oberlin architecture, explore building materials, try construction challenges, sketch designs, construct mini buildings, and envision buildings of the future. Boy Scouts and Girls Scouts attending this camp will also complete some requirements for Architecture badges and Interest Projects.

Notes about Camps and Registration

Camps are designed to stimulate children's creativity and allow them to experience history, architecture, art, crafts, games, and the tastes and sounds of diverse cultures. Camps are led by an experienced teacher assisted by college interns as well as youth and community volunteers. Camps take place at the air-conditioned Oberlin Depot at 240 South Main Street with occasional walking field trips to notable locations nearby. For all sessions, children should bring a bag lunch each day. Some snacks will be provided.

Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Classes may be cancelled if a minimum enrollment is not met by one week prior to the start date. No refunds will be made within one week prior to the session the registrant is scheduled to attend. Partial scholarships may be available to those who qualify for schools' free lunch programs (please inquire). Reservations must be accompanied by payment. Grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members may receive the member discount as well.

Meet our talented instructors!

Liz Schultz is the Museum Education and Tour Coordinator of the Oberlin Heritage Center. She graduated with degrees in archaeology and anthropology from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and Binghamton University (NY). Ms. Schultz then earned a M.A. in museum studies with a focus in museum education from the Cooperstown Graduate Program (New York). She enjoys inspiring curiosity, creativity, and an appreciation for diverse cultures, past and present.

Maria Surovy works in teacher education for Lake Erie College and Kent State University. She is a middle school social studies teacher, having taught at The Ratner School in Pepper Pike and St. Mel in Cleveland. Ms. Surovy is a graduate of the University of Dayton with a degree in secondary education in history and political science and has a M.S. degree in Historic Preservation from Ball State (Indiana). She taught for one year in Saipan in the Northern Marianas Islands and has traveled extensively throughout Asia and Europe. She has attended international workshops about the Cold War and Mozart's German operas and is thrilled to be back in Oberlin to teach camp again!

Jen Graham is a recent graduate of Oberlin College with an honor's degree in early U.S. history. She is currently an AmeriCorps member serving at the Heritage Center as part of the Ohio History Service Corps Program, assisting local historical societies in Northeast Ohio with programs and research. Ms. Graham also works as a costumed historical interpreter at Hale Farm & Village in Peninsula.

Also this Summer: I Spy Oberlin: History and Architecture Scavenger Hunt

This exciting program is for children ages 5-11 with an adult companion. Families are guided through historic Oberlin while keeping their eyes peeled for historic markers, decorative details, and Oberlin oddities. Fun and engaging for all! Reservations required. The "hunt" begins at the Monroe House and traverses outside in fair weather; we will "spy" inside our historic buildings if it's raining. This program is offered the first Saturdays of June, July, August, and September at 3:00 p.m.
