2015 Youth Summer Camps

Boys & Girls Ages 8-13

Oberlin Changed the World

July 27-31 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Ordinary Oberlinians did some pretty extraordinary things, even if it sometimes meant breaking the law! Together we'll explore Oberlin's history related to anti-slavery, women's rights, scientific discovery, and healthy living. But we're not just going to read or hear about history. We're going to go where it happened – in historic buildings, parks, cemeteries, and more. We'll play games, listen to music, and try activities and food from Oberlin's past. Each participant will also receive an "Oberlin: Origins and Onward" history comic book.

Architecture Camp

August 3-7 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Children will love learning the basics of architecture in this hands-on camp. Together we will tour Oberlin architecture, explore building materials, try construction challenges, sketch designs, construct mini buildings, and envision buildings of the future. Scouts attending this camp will also complete some requirements for Architecture badges.

Artists in Their Time

August 10-14 (Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

Learn about master artists from world history and how their life and culture influenced their artwork. Then make art inspired by them! Explore Georgia O'Keefe's rugged Southwest and make a watercolor. Learn about Rembrandt's Netherlands and create a self-portrait (the original selfie!) Throughout the week, students will keep a sketchbook journal and then finish with a "gallery" showing.

Notes about Camps and Registration

Camps are designed to stimulate children's creativity and allow them to experience history, architecture, art, crafts, games, and the tastes and sounds of diverse cultures. Camps are led by an experienced teacher assisted by college student interns as well as youth and community volunteers. Camps take place at the air-conditioned Oberlin Depot at 240 South Main Street with occasional walking field trips to notable locations nearby. For all sessions, children should bring a bag lunch each day. Some snacks will be provided.

Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Classes may be cancelled if a minimum enrollment is not met by one week prior to the start date. No refunds will be made within one week prior to the session the registrant is scheduled to attend. Reservations must be accompanied by payment. Grandchildren of Oberlin Heritage Center members may receive the member discount as well.

Partial scholarships may be available to those who qualify for schools' free lunch programs (please inquire).

Meet our talented instructors!

Liz Schultz is the Museum Education and Tour Coordinator of the Oberlin Heritage Center. She graduated with degrees in archaeology and anthropology from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and Binghamton University (NY). She then earned a M.A. in museum studies with a focus in museum education from the Cooperstown Graduate Program (New York). She enjoys inspiring curiosity, creativity, and an appreciation for diverse cultures, past and present.

Maria Surovy works in teacher education for Lake Erie College. She is a middle school social studies teacher, having taught at The Ratner School in Pepper Pike and St. Mel in Cleveland. Ms. Surovy is a graduate of the University of Dayton with a degree in secondary education in history and political science and has a M.S. degree in Historic Preservation from Ball State (Indiana). She taught for one year in Saipan in the Northern Marianas Islands and has traveled extensively throughout Asia and Europe. She has been teaching camps for over ten years and is thrilled to be back again!

Kaitlyn Goss is an AmeriCorps member working in Northeast Ohio as a Local History Corps volunteer through the Ohio History Connection. She has an undergraduate degree in anthropology and a master's in history, both from Wright State University (Dayton, OH).
