

Oberlin Heritage Center presents:

Hands-On History and Cultures of the World

Home School Series
Four Wednesdays, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
February 26-March 19, 2014

Children ages eight to thirteen are sure to enjoy this engaging and educational series about people around the world!

Each week we will explore a new culture and time period through hands-on activities and discussions of art, architecture, geography, food, religion and more:

Stone Age Britain

Ancient Indonesia

Age of Exploration: Voyages at Sea

The Five Nations of Iroquois

Classes are led by an experienced instructor and assisted by an adult volunteer. Classes will be held at the Oberlin Depot at 240 South Main Street. See the back for more details and registration information.

The series will be led by Liz Schultz, the Museum Education and Tour Coordinator of the Oberlin Heritage Center. She graduated with degrees in archaeology and anthropology and then earned a M.A. in museum studies with a focus in museum education. Liz enjoys inspiring curiosity, creativity, and an appreciation for diverse cultures, past and present.

A maximum of 17 participants will be accepted. Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Participants must register for the entire four-class series. Classes may be cancelled if a minimum enrollment of eight is not met by one week prior to the start date. No refunds will be made within one week prior to the start of the series.
