Oberlin Heritage Center Offers Family Fun with an Old-Fashioned Flair

Stand tall on stilts, race with hoops across the lawn, hold on to your sack as you hop to the finish line! Youngsters and those young-at-heart will enjoy hands-on fun with all sorts of old-fashioned amusements at the Oberlin Heritage Center on Saturday, August 7 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Heritage Center, located between 73 South Professor Street and 80 South Main Street, will offer a variety of activities which are free and open to the public as part of the 18th Annual Family Fun Fair taking place in Oberlin. Free parking for Heritage Center guests is available off of 20 West Vine Street through the Midas Muffler parking lot.

Ring the Schoolhouse bell and drop in to experience historic school lessons and games in the one-room schoolhouse. Visitors of all ages also will have a chance to step back in time and leisurely explore the Heritage Center's two beautifully preserved 19th century homes along with the one-room pioneer-era schoolhouse. The 1866 James Monroe House, the 1836 Little Red Schoolhouse and the 1884 Jewett House will host free "open houses" and invite visitors to learn more about the history of Oberlin and its early residents through "at your own pace" mini tours.

Those with more time and interest can join a docent-guided tour that will be offered at 10:30 a.m. and again at 1:30 p.m. Guided tours also will be free today because of the Fun Fair (a savings of $6 per person!); space is limited, however, and is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

New this year, two neighboring Lorain County historical societies will add to the festive atmosphere on the Heritage Center's grounds. Representing the Brownhelm Historical Association, Bill Cutcher will play tunes-that-will-make-you-smile on his hand-built busker's organ. Street entertainers, or buskers, were common sights in days gone by. Enjoy the music while finding out more about how the instrument is played. Meanwhile, kids and grown-ups alike will have great fun playing "telephone" with the Pittsfield Historical Society's string can activity. Visitors also will have a chance to learn more about the Pittsfield group's Schoolhouse Restoration Project.

The Oberlin Heritage Center also will host its regular Saturday morning Freedom's Friends History Walk at 11:00 a.m. This 75-minute walking tour winds through and around downtown Oberlin and showcases the community's important role in the history of abolition and the Underground Railroad. Tickets must be purchased through the Heritage Center's website (www.oberlinheritage.org) or at the Monroe House's Museum Store (73½ South Professor Street, Oberlin) for $6 per adult ($1 discount for Oberlin Heritage Center members) and children tour free. The tour is most likely enjoyed by children 9 years of age and up.
