This one story car dealership has large fixed storefront display windows on the north facade. Metal aluminum siding has been added above windows and doors. There are garage bay doors on the north facade. The west wall is quarry tile brick and the east has glass block openings.

43. History and Significance
In 1890 Dr. Bunce bought this lot after the house on it was moved to 36 S. Pleasant. Dr. Bunce then built a new home which was occupied by family members until 1931 when it was sold to the Odd Fellows, who used it in various ways. In 1938 that building and its wing were purchased and demolished by Mr. Schubert. He, and then his son, Paul Schubert, operated the building as a car dealership. It is now vacant.

44. Description of Environment and Outbuildings (see #52)
This vacant building is set back from the street and creates a gap on East College Street’s business district. It has parking in front.
