40. Further Description of Important Interior and Exterior Features (Continued on Reverse if Necessary)

This vernacular house features the Side Hallway plan common in northern Ohio. The main facade features an added, shallow shed hood that runs the length of the first story, which may mark the former roof of a front porch that has been removed. The door, located at the extreme right, has cement steps leading up with metal railings. The door and its narrow sidelights are recessed between the pilasters and entablature that surround it. A one-over-one... continued...

43. History and Significance (Continue on Reverse if necessary)

The first resident listed at this address in the 1891 city directory was Mabel Shangafelt and family. The next occupant of the house was Oberlin Conservatory Violin professor, Frederick Giraud Doolittle and his wife Maude in 1894 (Holsworth). In 1895, the new resident was Dr. George Jameson and his wife. The Jamesons lived here from 1895 until around 1897 (City Directory). In 1899 the new resident of the house was the S.W. Ely family, and in 1902 another new occupant was W.H. Moherman (City... continued...

window with a much larger lower sash is located left of the door, and the three one-over-one windows in the second story have shutters. Louvered vents are located in the gable. A tall, concrete block wall for a flowerbed runs along the foundation of the facade; this may have replaced an original front porch. The west elevation has two one-over-one windows at the first and second stories. The second story windows have shutters. A one-story addition is located at the rear of the house. The east elevation features a porch raised significantly off the ground, with square lattice below. A large one-over-one window is located at the porch, as well as the door, which faces the main facade. Two six-over-six windows are situated in the second story. A one-story addition at the rear of the house has a tall, concrete block foundation and two one-over-one windows.
