42. Further Description of Important Interior and Exterior Features (Con't)
the main facade is painted brick, while the second story and side elevations are covered in shingles. A single-vehicle carport is located on the far left side of the front facade. This portion of the house is recessed from the main body of the structure. A gabled dormer is located above the carport. The second story of the house has a slight overhang on the front facade. A first-story addition, located at the rear, has a shed roof. A screened-in deck, which is probably not original to the house, is located at the southeast corner of the structure. Also on the first story of the east elevation is a ribbon of windows, located at the garage.
