This American Foursquare has elements of Queen Anne style, as in its shingled front gable. The house features a full front porch with square supports. Lattice runs below the porch, which contains square balusters. Cement steps lead up to the porch, which also contains rock-face bases below the porch supports. The door is located to the left, in an area that projects from the building. The door contains a tall, oval window. A wide, continued...

This house was built around 1908 for Dr. J Hutchinson Hall, who lived here with his wife, E. Jean. The Halls lived here with Robert A Jelliff and Milton Percival in 1908; Jelliff & Percival were instructors of English (City Directory). In 1910, C Williams lived here with the Halls (City Directory). In 1916 E.A. Graves lived here with his wife Clara and daughters Edith and Claire (Holsworth). The next residents, Friedrich August & Ambrosia Goerner moved into this house between 1917-1920, and continued...

This house is well maintained and is located along a street with houses from a wide range of years (early 1900s to mid-1900s). A detached garage is located behind the house.

42. Further Description of Important Interior and Exterior Features (Con’t)

three-over-three window is located to the right of the door. The second story has two wide, two-over-two windows. The attic features a one-over-one double hung window flanked by smaller, fixed square windows. The attic gable is shingled, and the wood clapboard siding of the second story is narrower than that of the first story. The south elevation has a door near the center of the first story, with a pedimented hood above. The door contains nine glass panels in the upper portion and two molded wood panels below. A fixed window containing two lights is situated right of the door. A square, projecting bay to the left has a fixed, two-panel window flanked by one-over-one double hung windows. A single one-over-one double hung window is located in the second story. The attic has a gable dormer with a one-over-one double hung window; it also contains wood clapboard siding, except in its shingled gable. The north elevation features a first story, square, projecting bay on the right that contains two one-over-one double hung windows. Windows are located left and right of this projecting bay. At the second story, a wide, one-over-one double hung window is located to the left, with a narrower one to the right.

43. History and Significance (Con’t)

lived here through 1941 (City Directory). Friedrich was a professor of Violoncello and Ensemble at the Oberlin College Conservatory for 38 years (Oberlin News). The Goerners had at least one child, a son named Lea (Oberlin News). In the 1942 City Directory, the house was listed as vacant, however, by 1948 Clarence W Wood occupied this house with his wife Bernice A (City Directory). Clarence was an electrician who died between 1961-70 & Bernice lived here through 1980 (City Directory, Oberlin Phone Books). According to the Property Card, Susan Labarre (who owned the property for an unknown duration) sold this house in 1990 to the current residents (Property Card).
