and another 1/1 double hung window at the far left side of the second story. At the west elevation, the modern, attached garage has a west-facing gable. The garage has a door at the far right, with small, horizontal sliding windows to its left. Another 1/1 double hung window is in the garage gable. At the rear of the garage, the eaves extend to cover a rear patio. At the original portion of the house, a shed wall dormer has four horizontal, sliding windows in the roof. At the first story, to the left, an original window has muntins that follow the horizontal sides of the window, and are cut in half by a short, vertical muntins at the center. Near the center of the elevation, a pair of 1/1 windows are double hung. Also near the center, steps and a stoop lead to a north-facing door.
