42. Further Description of Important Interior and Exterior Features (Continued on Reverse if Necessary)

This house is an example of a Craftsman/Arts and Crafts Front Dormer Bungalow. Left of the front porch, a set of three twelve-over-one windows has a shed roof above the windows. The porch extends right from the center of the elevation. The porch has thick stucco supports and is surrounded by a stucco wall. The door is located near the center of the elevation; it has six lights in the upper half and molded wood panels below.

43. History and Significance (Continue on Reverse if necessary)

This house was probably built between 1908-10 (Property Card, City Directory). The first known occupant was Mrs. Eliza J. Tobey (City Directory); she lived here with her daughter, Dr. Miriam Tobey in 1910 (Holsworth). The next known occupants in 1916 were Charles King Barry and Madeleine L. Chichester (City Director). Charles was a professor at the OC Conservatory (Holsworth). Madeleine died in 1925 (Oberlin News), which may be when Charles vacated the house. By 1927, sisters Frances Gertrude continued...

A detached, two-car garage is located behind the house, which is located on a residential street near a cul-de-sac.

flank the door. The far right side of the elevation features narrow double doors with many lights. A gable dormer is located above the entry, at the center of the elevation and contains casement windows with eight lights. A pair of eight-over-one windows is situated to the right of the dormer. The east elevation features a projecting bay at the left side of the first story that has three nine-over-one windows and a shed roof with a rectangular window to the right. The far right has a first story addition with wood clapboard siding and three windows. The second story of the original portion of the house has a nine-over-one window to the left and right, with a rectangular window near the center. A window in the attic has four lights and vertical muntins with a small, louvered vent in the gable. The west elevation includes a flush, but exposed chimney, not covered in stucco, which is widest at its lower half. A pair of windows left of the chimney has nine lights. The far left has a gable over the first story in addition to a large window with multiple lights.

and Louella May Nash had moved in (City Directory). The Nash sisters lived here for over 30 years. Frances was the Dean of Women at the Conservatory & later became Emeritus Dean of Conservatory Women. She was also the first part-time female instructor at OC’s seminary & taught elocution & dramatic expression at the Conservatory (Archives). L. May was a teacher who continued to live in this house after her retirement. Both Frances & L. May died in 1961 (Westwood). By 1970, Feite F. Hofman, MD lived here (City Directory). Feite was a physician, whose office was located at 224 W. Lorain (Ohio Physicians/Doctors Directory). The current owners are Robert H & Linda T Grimm; they have lived here since at least 1989 (Oberlin Phonebooks). Linda is an associate professor at OC who earned her PhD at UCLA & teaches Archaeology, Paleolithic Ancient Civilizations, Gender, Museum Anthropology, Europe, & Northwest US (Oberlin Online).
