Oberlin Heritage Center

Image Use Policy and Fees

The Oberlin Heritage Center grants permission for the use of reproductions of its images, text and data for Personal, Educational or Academic Use without financial gain, and to non-profits with proof of non-profit status.

The Oberlin Heritage Center grants permission for Commercial Use. A fee is assessed and the permission applies to one-time use of the images, text, or data as specified in the signed agreement. Users must contact the Oberlin Heritage Center for permission for additional use not included in the agreement. The Oberlin Heritage Center requests that a copy of any publication or product that includes its materials be provided for the Center’s Archives.

The Request for Permission to Publish, Display or Broadcast Reproductions of Photographs from the Oberlin Heritage Center Resource Center must be completed and signed, and all reproduction and use fees must be paid in advance. Use fees are charged on a per image basis.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

1. Permission to reproduce, publish, broadcast or display an Oberlin Heritage Center photograph must be requested in writing on this form. The applicant agrees to abide by all terms, conditions, and provisions of this agreement.
2. Permission for reproduction of images is granted only for the express purpose described in the application. If the intended use of the image is for publication, permission is authorized for one time, non-exclusive use of that image.
3. Copies or prints of images from the Oberlin Heritage Center collections may not be deposited or placed on file in any other repository, including electronic filing methods.
4. The Oberlin Heritage Center does not hold copyright over many of the images and illustrations in its collections. Responsibility for identifying and satisfying any claimants of copyright must be assumed by those wishing to reproduce the images.
5. Photographs may be cropped to suit design and layout, but may not be altered digitally or drawn on in any way so that they look different from their original appearance in the historical collection.
6. The Oberlin Heritage Center reserves the right to decline reproduction of fragile items or reproduction for inappropriate use.
7. Sale of a copy of a photograph, film footage, or illustration from the Oberlin Heritage Center’s collections does not involve sale of the copyright. Reproduction and Use Fees are charged for the images, based on OHC’s physical ownership of the images, and not on copyright.
8. A credit line must accompany images used in an illustration of any kind. It should read “Oberlin Heritage Center/O.H.I.O. Oberlin, Ohio.”
9. Prepayment of all fees is required before permission is granted for reproduction of images. Default in payment will immediately revoke permission.
10. The Oberlin Heritage Center requests that a copy of any publication that includes Oberlin Heritage Center materials be provided to its archives.
