The Oberlin Heritage Center Will Re-Open to the Public on April 1

The Oberlin Heritage Center is pleased to announce that it will re-open to the public on Thursday, April 1, 2021. This means that office hours, as well as Museum Store hours, will resume 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday. All safety protocols (masks and social distancing) will remain in place for staff, guests, volunteers, and other visitors.

Public Tours will resume April 1. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, OHC will offer the Oberlin Origins Tour of the Monroe House at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. This tour lasts approximately 30 minutes. Admission for this experience is $3/adult and free for students and members.

On Saturdays, OHC will offer the Oberlin Origins + Little Red Schoolhouse Tour at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. This tour lasts approximately 45 minutes. The admission fee for this experience is $4/adult and free for students and members.

Advance reservations for all tours are required until further notice. Please call (440) 774-1700 to make a tour reservation today or register online at <https://secure.oberlinheritage.org/events.shtml>. All research appointments must also be arranged in advance.

At this time, all indoor tours will operate with the restricted capacity of nine (9) individuals from one (1) family or familiar group. All visitors or household groups must complete a basic COVID-19 screening survey. Visitors on indoor and outdoor tours are required to wear face coverings if they are physically able to do so. Masks are available at the museum, as supplies last. We also encourage visitors to take advantage of our hand sanitizing station and/or restroom for hand washing before and after the tour. We ask all museum patrons to follow social distance guidelines from individuals not in their immediate familial or familiar group. Visitors who do not follow our safety protocols may be refused service and asked to leave.
